

7 Academic Listening and Note Taking in a Second Language 143

- Teaching Principles 143
- Note Taking versus Note Making 144
- The Importance of Listening and Note Taking 144
- Unique Challenges for ELLs 145
- Note Taking Matters, and Students Should Know Why 147
- Note Taking Begins with Listening 148
- Facilitating Note Taking in Class 153
- Helping Students Summarize Information 161
- Paraphrasing: Putting Things in Your Own Words 165
- Evaluating Note Taking 165
- Conclusion 166

8 Writing in a Second Language 169

- Challenges for ELLs 169
- Helping ELLs Overcome Writing Challenges 172
- Tailoring the Writing Process to the Needs of ELLs 173
- The Fluency Challenge:
 - Developing Writing Fluency Using Daily Writing 177
- Communicative Functions/Performance Indicators 179
- Guiding ELLs to Write Expository Text in English 179
- Teaching and Modifying Genres for ELLs 180
- Helpful Writing Formats to Use with ELLs
 - That Can Cross Personal and Factual Genres 194
- Using Assessment to Guide Instruction 201
- Conclusion 202

9 Supporting English Language Learners in Mainstream English Classes 204

- Who Are the ELLs in Our Classrooms? 205
- The Challenges of English Language Arts 207
- Motivating ELLs to Achieve in the Mainstream ELA Classroom 207
- Building Community 209
- Scaffolding Learning for ELLs in the ELA Classroom 215
- Providing Opportunities
 - to Extend ELLs' Speaking and Performance Skills 216
- Developing Critical Reading and Writing Skills around Literature 219
- Developing Vocabulary
 - to Support Reading Comprehension and Extend Writing Skills 224
- Strategies for Supporting ELLs in Writing 228
- Formative Assessment 231
- Conclusion 233

Glossary 235

References 241

Index 250