

10	Promoting Additive Bi/Multilingualism	200
	Language Status and Additive Bi/Multilingualism	201
	Increasing Language Status through Programmatic Decisions	201
	Implementing additive bilingual programs	201
	Alternate pathways to multilingual competence	203
	What about subtractive program environments?	205
	Increasing Language Status in Non-Dual-Language Education Classrooms	206
	Bilingual teachers in subtractive environments	206
	Additive bilingualism in multilingual environments	207
	Reflecting on the Principle of Additive Bilingualism in Practice	209
	Policy to Practice: Challenges to Language Status Equalization	211
	(Un)Equal language status issues in TWI programs	211
	Linguistic compartmentalization	213
	Shifting Perspectives: The Language of Additive Bi/Multilingualism	217
11	Structuring for Integration	221
	Integration, Segregation, and Assimilation	222
	The cost of segregation	222
	The cost of assimilation	224
	Finding the balance: Toward integration	225
	Reflecting on the Principle of Structuring for Integration in Practice	227
	Policy to Practice: Challenges to Student Integration	227
	Differential acquisition contexts in TWI programs	229
	Teacher accommodations during integration	230
	Students' language use during integration	231
	The tensions of integration	233
	Shifting Perspectives: The Language of Integration	235
12	Moving Forward	239
	Discourses and Language Decisions in School	239
	The Need for Dual Pathways to Advocacy	242
	Engaging with dominant discourses	244
	Framing pluralist discourses	244
	The Four Principles and Pluralist Discourses: Policies, Practices, and Research	245
	Moving Toward Bi/Multilingual Discourses	250
	Glossary	253
	References	261
	Index	283